

Ravensworth CE Primary School Newsletter

Friday 18th December 2015

Dear all,

So we have come to the end of the term, and the school is full of jingling bells, flashing lights and pom-pom noses for our Christmas jumper day! A wonderful collection of jolly jumpers are filling our classrooms as the children settle into their final morning. So, just a few short reflections on our last week – jam packed as always...

Our Nativity on Tuesday night was a really lovely performance, brilliantly executed by the children of Class 1. They did a fantastic job, acting and singing beautifully, and with real confidence and self-assurance – not an easy task with a huge audience facing them! A huge well done to them all, and thanks to Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Stanwix for putting this together so well. Pictures are available on our website – search Gallery > Nativity 2015.

Then on Wednesday, our wonderful catering team, under the excellent leadership of Mrs. Slack, laid on a delicious lunch for us all. I have enough stress cooking Christmas dinner for myself and Mrs. Campbell, so how you go about rustling up 108 lunches is beyond me! As if that wasn't enough, Mrs. Slack then laid on a huge gamut of party food the next day, including meringue snowmen, carrot cakes, chocolate logs and savoury treats! Our thanks to her.

We had a special visitor (the man in the red suit) yesterday morning (thanks to the 'elves' who helped him with the present wrapping etc.!). Then a lovely carol service (a shame that the Green was a quagmire – maybe one year it'll be crisp and fresh!) and a great Christmas party in the afternoon. Which brings us to this morning...where a tired but happy staff at Ravensworth wish you all a very merry Christmas indeed.

Milk / Juice – please note that, from January, milk and juice will be set up on Parentpay. The charge for a ½ term will be £6. The system might not be up and running in the first week, but please don't send in cash payments – we'll notify you when Schools ICT have set it up. Thanks.

Dates for the Diary:

Tuesday 5th January – School re-opens, 8:30am

And Finally...

As we sadly say goodbye to Mrs. Mundy after her many years of service to the school, we say hello to a new member of the Ravensworth family. Welcome baby Rose, congratulations to Miss Crisp, and farewell Mrs. Mundy.

Have a wonderful Christmas,

Rob Campbell
